

LAKELAND CHORAL SOCIETY, INC

Sponsorship Program

Founded in 1967, the Lakeland Choral Society is a large auditioned chorus dedicated to performing great choral works, giving back to the community through our shared love of song, and inspiring a new generation of musicians. Each year the Lakeland Choral Society awards competitive scholarships to vocal students. Music is a powerfully emotive tool capable of creating community, and the Lakeland Choral Society bridges the distance between the cities and towns of Polk County. Under the direction of Beth Cummings, the adult chorus presents a minimum of two concerts, in the Fall and Spring, and performs with the Imperial Symphony Orchestra and the Lakeland Concert Band. The Lakeland Choral Society enjoys the benefit of a long relationship with Florida Southern College.

In 2012, with the support of the George W. Jenkins Fund within the GiveWell Foundation, the Lakeland Choral Society established the Florida Southern Children's Chorus for students in grades 3 through 5 and the Florida Southern Girls' Chorus for older students in grades 6 through 12. The chorus experience helps each student develop his or her voice and proficiency in music reading skills encouraging each performer to be the best that they can be within the context of the ensemble. Each chorus is a team and a family, and they support each other in their pursuit of making beautiful music together. Youth Chorus performances are held in the fall and the spring.

Sponsorship helps support the chorus, music, scholarship programs and performances.
